

SUMMER SCHOOL HAS FINE OUTLOOK

Attendance Expected to Break Record—University Grounds to Be Improved.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., May 27.—The outlook for the University of Virginia Summer School, which begins on June 17, is very promising. Last year there was a regular attendance of 1,200, besides students coming and going, making the actual attendance about 2,000. Every indication is that this year's will be the largest Summer School ever in session at the university.

The Rural Conference will be held at the university this summer, having speakers from all over the country. Five thousand copies of the record of the conference are gotten out, a number of which will be sent to England. The Health Conference will also be held this summer at the university. This is a new feature of the Summer School.

To Improve Grounds.

Extensive improvements will be made this summer in the grounds at the University of Virginia, already considered by many competent critics to be among the most beautiful college grounds in America.

It is proposed to add porticos and fences to the Dawson's Row houses, after the same style seen on the lawns and ranges. The spaces between these six dormitories will be filled by arcades with rooms, so that all of the houses will be connected. When this work is finished, Dawson's Row will have an appearance very much like that of the lawn, with a nearly semi-circular contour.

Handsome asphalt walks, symmetrically laid off, will connect the row, the lawns, and the commons. The valley situated in the rear of the Mechanical Laboratory will be landscaped and beautified. When all this work is completed, the southwestern corner of the university's grounds will be one of the most beautiful sections of the campus.

Roanoke Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., May 27.—One of the most delightful occasions here this week was the luncheon given by Mrs. D. W. Pluckwitz Tuesday at her home in honor of Mrs. F. H. Meenick, of Panama. Covers were laid for twenty guests, two tables being used in one room decorated with pink, purple and yellow. Dainty hand-painted place cards marked the guests' seats. A most elaborate course luncheon was served. Her guests included Mrs. D. W. Pluckwitz, Mrs. F. H. Meenick, E. M. Funkhouser, W. G. Clayton, J. R. Garrett, Mrs. Crawford, Misses Mary Rogers, Beale and Aurelia Huger, Ruth Hart, of Richmond, Mary Meenick, Cooke, Lizzie Tullaferris, Mary Churchill, Martha Tabor, Nannie Hillery, Editha Gray and Nell Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Churchill have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mary Shelby, to Paul Virginia Littlejohn, of this city. The marriage will take place June 6, 5 o'clock P. M., at St. John's Episcopal church. The wedding will be one of the most brilliant events of the spring, the contracting parties being prominent and popular in the social life of the city. Miss Churchill will entertain a large house party next week, and numerous card parties, luncheons and several dances will be given in honor of the bride-elect and her guests.

The Ken Lik Ather Club delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon a number of married women, mothers of members of the club and their friends, at a lovely picnic. Attractive decorations of palms, ferns and cut flowers added to the beauty of the occasion. Young women receiving were Misses Elizabeth Harrison, Josephine Koehler and Rosa Rogers. Those serving were Misses May Blair Boudin, Lucie Blanton, Sallie Gravely, Mayme Jennings, Ethel Churchill, Isabel Rutherford, Ruth Wood, Kitty Hoge, Rosalie Miller, Bess Evans and Dorothy Hartman, of California. Miss Josephine Koehler is entertaining a most delightful week-end party at her home on Tenth avenue. Her guests are Mrs. J. B. Rutherford, Rosa Rogers, May Blair Boudin, Mayme Jennings and Hannah Cook.

The Country Club was most attractive Saturday afternoon with its guests, dotted about in groups on the lawns, playing bridge, and others strolling over the beautiful grounds. Mrs. A. Green, chairman of the reception committee, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. P. Reid, Mrs. J. H. Morris, Misses Isabel and Janet Rutherford.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McComb have as their guests Theodore M. Allen and Arthur L. Tabor, of New York, who are here on a week-end. Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Graham are spending the week in Christiansburg the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Shelton. Later they will go to Max Meadows and Wytheville for the summer.

Mrs. J. W. Lovell, of Richmond, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Saunders. Miss Ruth Hart, of Richmond, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. M. Nelson.

Mrs. F. C. Morton, of South Boston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Paine. Miss Elizabeth Guernsey, of Buchanan, is visiting Mrs. J. Allen Watts.

"MARRYING PARSON" WINS ANOTHER FIGHT

REV. ALFRED H. BURROUGHS.

Overcomes Opposition of Bristol Ministerial Association.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Bristol, Va., May 27.—The most unique of all characters in the South is the Rev. Alfred Harrison Burroughs, who has married upwards of 1,000 runaway couples from the two Virginias, defying the laws of other States and the wishes of fond parents. This man has recently come into new notoriety because of his successful fight to overcome the opposition of the local ministerial association, which organization sought to put him out of commission by having a law enacted in Tennessee preventing the marriage of runaway couples. The ministerial association succeeded in enlisting the aid of former Governor Cox, who introduced such a bill in the State Senate. That body passed the measure, but when it came to the lower house friends of the wizard parson succeeded in putting it to sleep. And so it is that Dr. Burroughs continues to meet all trains, day and night, walking with a cane and carrying two umbrellas on one arm, to which burden is added a lantern at night.

It is his ambition now to reach the 5,000 mark before death has finally claimed him. Although nearly sixty years of age, he declares that he feels not a whit older than at seventy, and that his romantic career stimulates him and makes life ever a charm.

Delicious refreshments were served. Complimentary to the visiting young women several of the young men of the city gave an enjoyable hop on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Seay. A large number of guests were present.

The graduating exercises at the public school will be held June 5-6. On the evening of the 5th an entertainment will be given at the Opera House, and on the morning of the 6th the address before the graduates will be delivered by Aubrey E. Strode, of Amherst. The graduates this year are Misses Lella Cummins, Ruth Reed, Bessie Deane and Ambrose Brown.

The Confederate Memorial Day exercises will be held on June 2, under the auspices of the Winchester Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Among the visitors from a distance who were here for the commencement exercises were MacDonald Lee, United States Fish Commissioner; Captain H. Frankenhaugh, of the United States Coast Survey; Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rutledge, of Vincennes, Ind.; J. Hootnagle, of Ashland, Misses Sedbrook and Caroline Midvette, and Miss Annie Macdonald, of Ashland; Miss Nora Coyner, of Waynesboro; Misses Lois and Francis Bullard, of Hackensack, N. J.; Miss Florence Gardner, of New York; and Miss Mazie Franklin, of Elkhorn, Va., are the guests of Misses Audrey and Marie Robey.

Misses Shelley Coates, of Salem, and Misses Jane Williams and Katharine Hosler, of Mansfield, O., are the guests of Miss Margaret Umholtz, at Green Point.

E. L. Embre is spending several days in Taylor, J. H. Callahan, E. S. Pendleton, G. Hillman and H. E. Meeks, of Clifton Forge, spent several days in the city this week, coming over in their machine.

Miss Angie Wade of Raphine, spent several days in the city this week, the guest of Mrs. J. W. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rainey, of Jamestown, returned to their home in Atlanta, Tuesday.

W. N. Kay is spending several days in Washington.

Buena Vista, Va., May 27.—The past week has been a very busy one socially with the commencement exercises at the Southern Seminary, which came to a successful close Monday evening, and the numerous entertainments which have been given in honor of the various visiting young women. Tuesday evening Misses Audrey and Marie Robey entertained with a card party in honor of their house guests, Miss Mazie Franklin and Miss Florence Gardner. More than fifty guests were present and enjoyed the evening playing cards. At the conclusion of the game, it was found that the highest score had been made by J. O. Burke, who was presented with the prize, and he, in turn, presented it to the guests of honor, Misses Gardner and Franklin.

Wednesday evening Miss Margaret Umholtz entertained with a lawn party in honor of Misses Shelley Coates, of Salem; Jane Williams, and Katharine Hosler, of Mansfield, O. The beautiful lawn of Green Forest was decorated in a most attractive manner, with numerous lanterns, presenting a very pretty effect. The evening was spent in playing games and dancing, and at a late hour de-

PATRICIAN

Shoe for Women

A Pretty Summer Girl Says

"I cannot forgive a girl who is not pleased with dress and who does not dress to please."

And all her American sisters echo the sentiment.

Acknowledged the best dressed of women, the secret of their success is the demand for an appropriate setting for their natural charm and individuality.

To meet this demand Patrician Shoes for Women were fashioned—dainty and suggestively feminine even to the sturdy waterproof Walking Shoes.

With nature's model always as a basis, each season's styles are so varied that an ever increasing number of women find their ideas and tastes expressed in one or more of the Patrician designs.

The modest cost of these shoes places them within the reach of all.

Every conceivable style.
